Thanks for your support, Loves Creations

Well it looks like storm season kicked off early this year. Between the Winter Polar Vortex and all the severe thunderstorms producing softball size hail in Louisiana, Texas, and Oklahoma, we have depleted our start up supplies and funds. We have started our annual pre-season fundraiser for our non-profit, Louisiana Storm Patrol. Please share the link below and watch for updates through Live videos and daily posts. Let's all help one another this year in a bigger way.
